Fairfield District Much Pleased With Work of Past Year.

The session of the schools of Fairfield district, Henrico county, just closed, has been unusually successful. Teachers and pupils worked faithfully and efficiently. ### Will Not Take the Stump.

Attorney-General William A. Anderson will not take the stump in his campaign for re-nomination. His opponent, Hon. Samuel W. Williams, has begun his campaign and has already taken the stump. Major Anderson says that he does not relish the idea of going out on the stump and asking the people to vote for him. Mr. Williams, he says, is a good Democrat and he has nothing whatever to say against him.

While the attorney-general will make no predictions as to the result, his friends are confident of his re-nomination, and do not think it necessary for him to make a canvass for the place.

POLITICS ARE UNUSUALLY HOT

The Candidates Are Vigorously Pressing Their Claims.

CAPTAIN WISE TO-NIGHT

Will Address Voters at Sanger Hall—Statement From Mr. Crenshaw.

The local political situation is becoming more interesting daily. Candidates are pushing their claims before the people vigorously.

Mr. William A. Crenshaw, opposing Captain Cunningham for the position of city collector, who thinks he has been misunderstood by some, said yesterday:

The remarks made by Captain Cunningham at the meeting of Saturday, June 3, 1905, and the interviews published seem to have made the impression on some that I am making a personal attack on him for my own benefit. I am sure no right thinking man will hold such a view after reading the facts presented.

At no time have I charged he has been guilty of any criminal act nor intent. I have charged that he has not conducted the office properly and produced the office to the satisfaction of the people. The only logical and proper reason for not re-electing a man to an office is the fact that his record is not good. Any man who objects to his record being published can object only because he is ashamed of the record.

Captain Cunningham stated at Belvidere Hall on Saturday, after acknowledging the truth of my charges, and again on Monday, that I had made a motion in the Finance Committee meeting of April 28, 1904, "that no mention be made of the charges against him in the annual report of the city collector."

His sole point seems to be, not that he is innocent, but that I tried to cover it up at one time and am now bringing it out as a personal attack on him.

At the time the charge was delivered the report of the city collector was forwarded to the Council, and this paper was open to the public and accessible to the press. The letters are appended:

Mr. W. A. Crenshaw, City Collector: Dear Sir—I was present at the meeting of the Finance Committee, April 28, 1904, at which a resolution relating to the conduct of the office of city collector was adopted. I have no recollection of the offering or adoption of any resolution looking to the suppression of the facts.

There was, to the best of my recollection, no formal motion that the facts relating to the conduct of the city collector, referred to above, should be suppressed, but several members of the committee expressed the opinion that it would be unwise for us to discuss it publicly.

In reply to your inquiry relative to the resolution referred to, will say that my recollection of the entire matter at this time is practically the same as expressed by Mr. H. B. Pollard, Jr.

Richmond, Va., June 5, 1905. Mr. W. A. Crenshaw, City Collector: Dear Sir—At this date I have no recollection of your having made any motion suppressing the action of the committee relating to the misconduct of the affairs of the city collector's office at the meeting of the Finance Committee of April 28, 1904.

Richmond, Va., June 5, 1905. Mr. W. A. Crenshaw, City Collector: Dear Sir—I am sure that at the meeting of April 28, 1904, the motion was made by you nor any one else to suppress the action of the committee in relation to the misconduct of the affairs of the city collector's office.

Respectfully yours, E. H. SPENCE.

When seen last night, Mr. T. H. Ellett, a member of the Finance Committee, said:

"I distinctly remember that Mr. Crenshaw urged that by all means the matter should be kept quiet, and that nothing should be said about it to anyone outside the committee."

"I heartily seconded the motion, but there was no record made of it."

"It was simply an understanding between gentlemen."

The following candidates paid their assessments to enter the primary on yesterday:

Harry C. Glenn and Robert E. Peyton, Jr., for the House of Delegates. Isaac Michael, George E. Bowden and L. C. Plag for justice of the peace, Jefferson Ward.

Charles F. Hill, James B. Peters and James D. Lyle for justice of the peace, Clay Ward. Thomas M. Walker and James Hannan for justice of the peace, Monroe Ward. J. Mac Tiller, for justice of the peace, Madison Ward.

Captain Wise To-night. Captain Wise will address the voters at Sanger Hall to-night concerning his candidacy for Commonwealth's Attorney, and he is earnestly desirous that all Democrats who can find it convenient to do so will attend.

Captain Wise is making an earnest fight for the nomination and believes his chances are bright.

He is regarded as an able criminal lawyer and held the office many years ago, before he was in Congress.

Captain Wise is a most entertaining speaker, and always has a crowd to hear him when he makes a public appearance. It is not likely that there will be any other speakers, as the hall has been rented by Captain Wise.

Captain Wise will probably review his course in public life at some length.

The party returned to the City Hall after taking supper at Campbell's Hotel. The Board Meets.

At 7 o'clock the board convened and heard the reports of the chief, the captains and inspectors. In the chief's report he earnestly recommended the departure of having regular target practice, so as to render the men better marksmen, permission having been secured to use the armory for this purpose. This matter was referred to the purchasing committee, and the chief, who will work out the details and put the system into operation.

Another interesting feature of the report was the request of the chief for broader powers in the management of the force, and it could be plainly seen that the board desired to accede to this request, but it was found that the charter stands in the way. It was the opinion of the city attorney that the board can

Life a Burden

There are times when life seems a burden—when you are tired, worn-out, have dull pains in the head and a continual feeling of uneasiness. You have no appetite, and your digestion is poor; your sleep broken, and you get no rest.

Little annoyances seem great mountains of trouble, and you are blue, melancholy and given over to gloomy forebodings.

This means low vitality—exhausted brain nerves.

For this condition Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a specific; it is a food for the nerves. It builds up the nervous system, and restores lost energy.

Try it to-day and see if your sleep is not sound and refreshing, and the morrow brighter and more hopeful.

"I am glad to announce that I have recovered my health, as far as my advanced age will permit, as I am 82 years old. My case was very bad; my nerves were all shattered. I suffered much pain and coldness; was so weak and felt so sad and lonely and heart-broken. When I commenced taking Miles' Restorative Nervine I was completely prostrated. I have taken the Restorative Nervine Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills, and they cured me."

MRS. E. C. BAWLEY, Waterloo, Ind. Dr. Miles' Nervine will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

not delegate the powers conferred upon it to the chief, and so it was decided to ask the next Legislature to amend the charter in this particular.

All Re-elected. The Board then unanimously re-elected the following officers and men for terms of three years from July 1, 1905:

Captain—E. P. Hulce. Sergeants—R. J. Brooks, R. B. Sowell, C. A. Gibson, T. J. Wren, J. T. Hall, G. H. Matthews. Privates—S. T. Goldsby, J. M. Keegan, C. M. Johnson, C. L. Clarkson, H. A. Amos, J. H. McMullen, L. S. Robins, J. H. Tyler, J. F. Howell, W. P. Gorman, F. M. Kraft, W. D. Schiefel, E. C. Tate, J. S. Gary, W. A. Nuckols, F. L. Krenzel, C. E. Tucker.

Mr. Whitlitt offered an amendment to the rules, providing that when any police officer announces his candidacy for an office, he must immediately resign from the force. Of course this does not apply to Officer Wyatt, who is on furlough while running for High Constable.

There was a good deal of discussion over the matter and it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that the department should be divorced absolutely from politics.

Captains Must Act. Mr. Manning offered a resolution, which was adopted, requiring captains to swear out warrants in nuisance cases, when reports came to them from privates and not to require the privates to do it.

Mr. Manning said he offered the resolution as a test of the responsibility with the heads of the districts.

Mr. Manning also asked that the captains, when making their reports to the judge of the Hustings Court as to the number, location and character of bars and pool clubs in their districts, furnish the same information to the Board. This was agreed to.

The matters relating to bicycles for a limited number of the patrolmen and to restoring the old second story went over until the next meeting.

The New Orders. Following is the order in which the men are to wear their new system promulgated by the chief:

Day schedule: Officers will report at intervals of one hour.

On beat No. 1, at 7:25; beat No. 2, at 7:30; beat No. 3, at 7:35; beat No. 4, at 7:40; beat No. 5, at 7:45; beat No. 6, at 7:50; beat No. 7, at 7:55; beat No. 8, at 8:00.

SITUATION IN NORFOLK UNIQUE

Candidates for State Senate Drop Out, Leaving But One.

APPEAL TO THE COMMITTEE

Hardly Any Doubt That Matter Will Come Up for Review.

An interesting situation has developed in the Thirty-third Senatorial District, embracing the city of Portsmouth and the county of Norfolk. Under the rule of alternation heretofore in vogue, the city is entitled to the senator this year, though citizens of both city and county have a voice in the selection of the man. The City Democratic Committee of Portsmouth has determined to hold a separate primary for the nomination of the candidate for senator, thus practically undertaking to settle the question for itself. While Norfolk county concedes to Portsmouth the nominee, they do not yield their right to have a voice in the selection of the Portsmouth man.

Chairman Montague of the Portsmouth City Committee has declined to enter his name in the contest in Portsmouth, rethe same upon its property and do a general real estate business.

Seaboard Electric Company, Norfolk. Incorporated. J. W. Little, vice-president; Baltimore; J. W. Little, secretary and treasurer, Richmond. Capital stock: Maximum, $20,000; minimum, $5,000. Objects and purposes: To deal in electrical supplies, dynamoes and other electrical machinery.

Harlow-Howard Company, Newsoms, Southampton county. Incorporated. J. B. Darden, president and manager; Richard Howard, secretary. Capital stock: Maximum, $10,000; minimum, $5,000. Objects and purposes: To do a general wholesale and retail mercantile business, to buy and sell farm products, manufactured articles and other goods.

The Truine City Construction Company, Norfolk. Incorporated. C. F. MacNicol, president; L. Whitehurst, vice-president;

Colonel A. S. Buford, Colonel T. M. R. Talcott, Mr. John Skelton Williams, Mr. Beverly B. Munford, Colonel John B. Purcell and Mr. William M. Habliston were among those present who have had experience in railroad buying and railroad handling, and these and others seemed to take more than a passing interest in the sale, but whether that interest was that of creditors or of railroad buyers no one could tell from their manner.

The first bid for the property, after Auctioneer Green, of the firm of Green and Redd, had raised the hammer was $50,000. Mr. Habliston, president of the National Bank of Virginia, became a bidder, and his figure was $100,000. Several $1,000 bids were made, carrying the figure up to $100,000, where it stood for a while, notwithstanding Mr. Green's earnest eloquence.

Mr. Williams in It. Mr. John Skelton Williams then for the first time became a bidder, and offered $50,000 more than any one else had bid. Mr. Henry Miller then made a way into the deal, and he made a right lively bidder against Mr. Williams. The two were in a race, and the bidding went on being Mr. Miller's bid. Auctioneer Green begged long and eloquently for another bid, which he didn't get, and the property was knocked out at $125,000.

"Who is the purchaser?" asked Mr. Green. "William M. Habliston and associates," was the answer. The sale of the Farmville and Powhatan Railroad was over, so far as the auctioneer was concerned, and now goes to the court for confirmation.

The terms of the sale were $75,000 cash, $25,000 of which shall be paid to the court within three days from the day of sale, and the residue of $50,000 when the sale is confirmed. The balance to be on credit of six and twelve months from the day of sale, the purchaser to execute negotiable notes for the deferred payments, with interest from day of sale, with the right to anticipate the payment of said notes, and the title to be retained until the whole purchase money is paid in a conveyance directed by the court.

Not Talking Yet. The purchasers, of course, would not say in advance of the court's action on the sale what they propose to do with the property.

The Farmville and Powhatan is a narrow gauge railroad, running from Farmville, in Prince Edward county, through the counties of Cumberland and Albemarle, and Chesterfield, to Bermuda Hundred, on James River. The road has a liberal charter that allows it to extend west to the Kentucky and Tennessee line and to build branch roads of fifty miles length anywhere it may wish.

Gans-Rady Company.

ONE OF THE STRONG FEATURES about Gans-Rady clothing is the manner in which it is built. The workmanship on every seam is as neatly and carefully done as if it was to show from the outside. All this lends strength to the clothing, supports the cutter's work and prevents the garment from dragging out of shape.
